MAY 2022 – Part 2

Congratulations Dr. Sue Ellen Krause

The ABFFD would like to extend congratulations to Dr. Sue Ellen Krause on being appointed to the CFCC.

Sue Ellen Krause, Ph.D., CCC-SLP, BCS-F, BCS-CL, ASHA Fellow and ISHA Fellow, is founder, Executive Director, and Sole Proprietor of Krause Speech & Language Services in Chicago. She is fortunate to provide a range of evaluation and intervention services with areas of expertise in fluency and fluency disorders, childhood language and literacy, phonology, apraxia, accent reduction, and speech and voice improvement. She also integrates research endeavors and community service in her private practice and contributes university guest lectures. Dr. Krause is proud to have been in the inaugural cadre of BRS-F and to have transitioned to BCS-F. She is certified provider of the Lidcombe Program treatment. She serves on the Council for Clinical Certification in Audiology and Speech-Language Pathology (CFCC) for the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association 2022-25 (ASHA).
